

Blade is back with the new single ALADINO

Reggio Emilia, Italy Jul 10, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Blade, also known as Abdel, is a Moroccan artist, born in Casablanca, who for several years has been in the world of music, working as both a talent scout and ghostwriter. He spent most of his musical career engaging in freestyle battles where he received a lot of satisfaction, then from there, he started with the release of songs. For months we have been following the releases of his latest singles, where the ever-changing sounds meet writing that is difficult to find in today's scene.

After a long stop, on July 15th he will release his latest single ALADINO in all digital stores.

According to his words, it almost seems to reveal a new return full of quality and surprises before announcing the date of a mysterious album.
