New York City, New York Jul 19, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - A seasoned vascular surgeon, Dr.

Bontempo works with patients at Suburban Community Hospital in Norristown, Pennsylvania.

Suburban Community Hospital is a not-for-profit, acute care hospital, and a member of the Prime Healthcare Foundation, a 501(c)(3) public charity. For over 65 years, Suburban Community Hospital has been delivering quality healthcare to Montgomery County and the surrounding region.

With a broad educational background, Dr. Bontempo graduated with his Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from the Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine in 1979, before completing his internship and residency in general surgery at Suburban General Hospital in 1984. Finally, he completed his fellowship in vascular surgery at the Penn Presbyterian Medical Center in 1986.

An authority in his field, the doctor is board-certified in vascular surgery and general surgery by the American Osteopathic Board of Surgery, which is an organization that provides board certification to qualified Doctors of Osteopathic Medicine who specialize in the use of surgery to aid in the diagnosis and treatment of disease.

Vascular surgery is a surgical subspecialty in which diseases of the vascular system, including the arteries, veins, and lymphatic circulation, are managed by medical therapy, minimally invasive catheter procedures, and surgical reconstruction. A vascular surgeon diagnoses, treats and manages conditions in the arteries and veins, also called the blood vessels. These specialists treat a range of health problems, from spider and varicose veins to life-threatening aneurysms, and can help patients manage chronic conditions throughout their lives.
