

New Luxury Red Wine Brand, LEONARDO DA VINCI WINERY Launches “THE LAST SUPPER” Vino Rosso

Napa, California Jul 22, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - Napa Valley's Leonardo Da Vinci Winery, announced today the launch of “The Last Supper” Vino Rosso, a classic Italian red wine. Handcrafted by a renowned in-house winemaker, The Last Supper is made with Cabernet Sauvignon, the world's foremost red wine-grape variety. The Californian-grown grapes are harvested, crushed, and fermented locally. The Napa Valley region is famous for its Bordeaux-style red blends and cult Cabernets, where Cabernet Sauvignon has become ubiquitous.

The Last Supper, also known as The Lord's Supper, was Jesus' last dinner with his followers in an upper room in Jerusalem. It was the catalyst for establishing the Eucharist, a practice still performed in many Christian churches today. Many renowned artists have attempted to paint The Last Supper. However, in contrast to artists before and after him, Leonardo da Vinci decided against giving Jesus Christ a halo. Although da Vinci received a Catholic funeral, some art historians think Leonardo da Vinci was more of a believer in nature than God.

Leonardo's Last Supper is located in its original place, on the wall of the dining room of the former Dominican convent of Santa Maria Delle Grazie, exactly in the refectory of the convent, and is one of the most celebrated and well-known artworks in the world.
