Get ready for a drift on a tale between two worlds with Jean Vandyke's Slaying the Jabberwock

SLAYING THE JABBERWOCK

BOOK ONE
OF THE SUTHERLAND-ROBERTS NOVELS

JEAN KEHOE VANDYKE

Sault Sainte Marie, Michigan Aug 25, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Slaying the Jabberwock is a character-driven novel by Jean VanDyke on the adventure of Willow Roberts as she explores the unread tomes and hidden secrets of Sutherland Manor, where she gets to work as a working student to an internationally acclaimed dressage rider and trainer, Mae Sutherland. Get into the state of euphoria while Willow Roberts unfolds the story of Mae's musically talented, charming, mysterious, and worldly grandson Drew.

"I've been writing tales about fictional people ...they live in my mind but relate to the world in their own peculiar ways"

"There's a lot of tongue-in-cheek narrative as well as very human misinterpretations and imagined assumptions that make the characters feel real in a story," said the author of her novel.

To all books fans, Slaying the Jabberwock is available for purchase at her website jeanvandykebooks.com and Amazon.
