HOG BITE Energy Drink is a women-owned energy drink

Pensacola, Florida Aug 18, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - Pensacola, Florida-based MSP, Inc. brings their brand HOG BITE Energy Drink in two bold 12oz cans to Southwest, Southeast Markets, and Walmart.com.

MSP, Inc., a women-owned beverage manufacturer/supplier, announces the introduction of HOG BITE Energy Drink. What makes HOG BITE Energy Drink different in the energy drink category are a number of ingredients like; vitamins B6/B12, Taurine and come packed with 116mg of caffeine per can. It also has a clean citrus taste. Only 100 calories in the original and 5 calories in the sugar-free option with no aftertaste like other brands.

"For us to bring HOG BITE Energy Drink to the South and South Eastern States is a natural fit says" Daniel Rogers, VP of sales. HOG BITE appeals to sports fans, high/college kids, hunters, HD Bikers, NASCAR Fans, and meat-lovers which makes HOG BITE stand out for consumers to try and love".

"What better way for HOG BITE Energy Drink to be introduced into these markets" Rogers continues to say. HOG BITE Energy Drink comes in two aggressive looking 12oz cans representing its' original and sugar-free options with a tagline "FEEL THE BITE!" on each can.

HOG BITE Energy Drink will become a retailer and consumer favorite as it stands out amongst other energy drink brands. Consumers will go HOG WILD over HOG BITE™ Energy Drink. HOG BITE Energy Drink will be initially marketed throughout Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, Oklahoma & Texas where there is a large feral pig population and problem thus HOG BITE was born.

Distributors are; KeHE Distribution and Glidewell Distributors out of Fort Smith, Arkansas
