Jacksonville, Florida Aug 30, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Limousine drivers are quickly able to learn the truth about local Jacksonville, FL. destinations from our clients experiences and by seeing exactly what is happening as they pass the time outside a business until a client is ready to ride. Our drivers now share what they know about JAX restaurants, nightclubs, hotels, airlines, attractions, entertainment venues and other businesses in a new weekly blog.

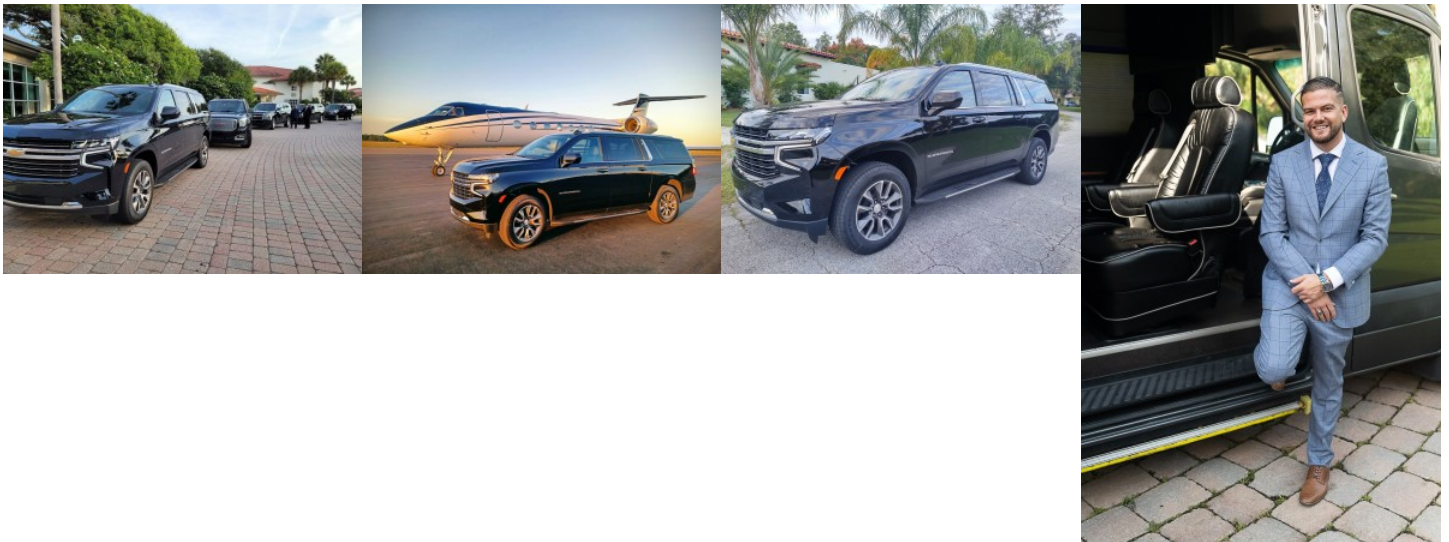

The Jacksonville blog articles are featured on the We Love JAX blog page and updated published frequently. In the past month we have released articles to share first-hand inside information about The 5 Top Restaurants in Jacksonville, The Best Natural Attractions for a JAX Day Trip and Why You Should Use a Car Service to get to the Jaguars Football Games. You can also see a listing of upcoming topics that our drivers will be sharing their unique perspective about.

Our Editor Mark T. said, "There are many advantages to using a professional car service; one that most people forget is the good advice of a limo driver who has a unique insiders' insight about area destinations from hundreds of customers. We are excited to share this information with others, whether they are our clients or not, because we love Jacksonville!"
