New York City, New York Aug 18, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - A board-certified family physician, Dr. Robichaud-Fuentes is affiliated with Dartmouth Hitchcock Clinics Manchester, joining the team in 2020. His areas of clinical focus include adult and pediatric primary care, LGBTQI+ health, Hepatitis C, and medication-assisted treatment (MAT)/addiction medicine.

Dartmouth Hitchcock Clinics Manchester is the largest multi-specialty physician group practice in southern New Hampshire. Their 120,000-square-foot outpatient facility opened in 1998 and includes primary and specialty care services, a lab, radiology services (including PET/CT and MRI), and an ambulatory surgery center.

Back in the early days of his academic career, Dr. Robichaud-Fuentes earned his medical degree from St. George's University School of Medicine in 2017. He then went on to complete his residency in family medicine at the University of Massachusetts/Fitchburg Family Medicine in 2021. He also holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Biomedical Engineering from the Worcester Polytechnic Institute.

As a testament to his continued education, the doctor is board-certified in family medicine by the American Board of Family Medicine (ABFM). The ABFM is a non-profit, independent medical association of American physicians who practice family medicine and its sub-specialties.

Family medicine is a medical specialty devoted to comprehensive health care for people of all ages. The specialist is called a family physician or family doctor. A family physician is often the first person a patient sees when seeking healthcare services. They examine and treat patients with a wide range of conditions and refer those with serious ailments to a specialist or appropriate facility.
