About the Author:

Joshua Valdez can usually be found exploring the sparkling gem of Florida's Gulf Coast. Writing a comical novella was on his quarantine bucket list, and eventually with, "Falling In Love In The Burg," it became a reality. His latest work is the new serial novella, "You Didn't Hear This From Me". When not absorbed in adventure, Joshua loves making pasta from scratch, painting, and spending way too much time scrolling for a show to watch. He lives in St. Petersburg, FL., with his husband and cat.

Why did you write this book:

I wanted to write something that was inclusive and challenged the way a reader sees the world through storytelling.

What makes this book different:

The characters in this story are written to be a reflection of people in our communities. This book was meant to entertain and help shape a new way of storytelling that is designed to be inclusive, provide commonality, and has elements that everyone can relate to.

What's inside the book:

A soap opera-style novella, with drama, romance, mystery, murder, and humor set in St. Petersburg, Florida.

What Keywords describe your book:

Quick read, travel book, mystery, romance, amnesia, coma, crime, Millionaire, LGBTQ+, revenge, soap-opera, novella
