Azərbaycan-e Xəvari, İran Sep 16, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Many musicians are contented by creating music itself. But there are a few personalities who go beyond music. Mosalah irani alias Hasan Karimi has brought music and business together and has broadened his opportunities by being a musician cum entrepreneur. Hasan is all set to come up with his new techno album 'Hasan karimi' which will release by Summer 2022. After producing music for reputed names, the musician has now upped his game with some chartbuster tracks. His recently released track 'People' from his album went berserk in just a few days of its release.

Techno music

Before he started his journey in the music industry, he had been a guitar player who dreamed of traveling the globe playing music. He has his roots in Boukan, Iran, and has established a lot of strong connections in the music industry. Hasan developed an ear for techno music and later started producing electronic music for some of the most reputed singers of Iran. After producing music for them, Hasan even produced music under his own label and collaborated with many talented DJs of the world. Celebrities like Aran Samadi and Hosein Minapour appreciate and follow this young guy's work on social media. Merging business with music, Hasan Karimi started investing in festivals and events he attended all over the world including festivals in Ibiza and Tulum. "I never restricted myself to music and wanted to explore different horizons of the business world. By bringing out my musical skill and business ability, it has been a roller coaster ride to host and invest in many shows", he quoted. In 2022, the musician is all set to perform at various festivals across the world. The events depend upon the release of his debut full-length record. Hasan is anxiously waiting for the release of his record and we wish this young musician all the best for his upcoming work.
