

J Will releases moving tribute to brother.

Hannibal, Missouri Sep 26, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Joshua Williams (J-Will) is the founder and CEO of Joint Heirs Music Group. Born and raised in Hannibal, MO, Josh developed a passion for Music and creativity. Due to the early success of the group, they decided it was time to take their Music ministry to the next level; eventually connecting and sharing the stage with several stellar and dove award-winning artists, such as Kirk Franklin, Toby Mac, Mary-Mary, and Fred Hammond.

Jwill_Music is releasing the song, "See You Again", in dedication to his brother who passed while coaching his son's football team. With support from his hometown as well as from the Kansas City Chiefs, J-Will hopes to inspire others to his brother's legacy and remind fans, friends, family, and supporters of God's grace.

See You Again - Spotify

See You Again - YouTube

www.jwilltheartist.com

Follow J-Will on Instagram!

Media Contact

Arch Wave Music

info@archwavemusic.com

Source : Jwill_Music

See on IssueWire