Memphis, Tennessee Sep 29, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - 'Trap' is the latest released track by the Memphis-born trap music artist M.E.S Trap that is perfect to make the audience groove. The composition of the song is done in an ideal way that fills up the room with high-loaded energy. The genre of trap music is based on drug culture which is musically enriched with heavy bass, drums, and rhythmic snares which the artist has skillfully mastered and reflected in the song. The continuous effort to make good music and his immense talents can be felt in the music and its perfect composition.

The artist, M.E.S Trap has shown his unique talent to convey the energy and vibe to the audience through musical pieces. The track, 'Trap' is a fine example of a trap musical piece that captures the true essence of the genre along with some influence from the hip-hop genre as well. The production of the song is filled with slow and heavy drums and the melodic progression is on the grimy side that makes the single even more captivating for the audience. The variety of synthesized bass sounds which are also symphonic brightens up the room with its energy and keeps people grooving.

This Memphis-born trap music artist is not only a praiseworthy composer, but with this song, he has proved himself to be a talented lyricist who connects with the audience and listeners with the writing. The lyrics and verses are interesting and gritty which lightens up the mood and perfectly conveys M.E.S Trap's story and message.

'Trap' is now available on Spotify, Amazon Music, Tidal, Apple Music, IheartRadio, Deezer, and YouTube where the listeners will also be able to listen to his previous project, an EP titled 'Setup Jungle' which is also impressive in all forms.
