Get to know Pulmonologist Dr. Jorge H. Dolojan, who serves patients in Fredericksburg, Virginia.

New York City, New York Oct 14, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - Working at Virginia Pulmonology and Critical Care, LLC, Dr. Dolojan strives to deliver exemplary pulmonary and critical care to patients across multiple environments.

His philosophy of patient care aligns with the VPACC motto “spiro, spero” (Latin for “I breathe, I hope”). He welcomes the challenge that his specialty brings, and his faith emboldens him to ensure his patients, with his counsel and expertise, have hope in the optimal management of their disease.

Before embarking on his professional journey, Dr. Dolojan earned his medical degree from the Saba University School of Medicine in the Netherlands. After relocating to the United States, he completed his internship, residency in internal medicine, and fellowship in pulmonary disease and critical care at UMDNJ New Jersey Medical School.

He trained at University Hospital, Hackensack University Medical Center, and the East Orange Veterans Administration Medical Center, which allowed him to understand patient care delivery across a wide spectrum.

Since his arrival in Fredericksburg in 2012, Dr. Dolojan has been in the role of ICU medical director at 2 hospitals. He is also affiliated with Mary Washington Hospital, Spotsylvania Regional Medical Center, and Stafford Hospital.

A member of the American Medical Association, the doctor is board-certified in pulmonary disease, critical care medicine, and internal medicine by the American Board of Internal Medicine (ABIM). The ABIM is a physician-led, non-profit, independent evaluation organization driven by doctors who want to achieve higher standards for better care in a rapidly changing world.

Pulmonology is a medical specialty that deals with diseases involving the respiratory tract. A pulmonologist is an internal medicine physician who specializes in preventing, diagnosing, and treating conditions and diseases that affect the lungs, bronchial tubes, and the respiratory system, including the nose, pharynx, and throat.

As a testament to his success, Dr. Dolojan has been selected as one of Northern Virginia Magazine’s Top Doctors in 2016, 2020, and 2021.
