

The Haunted North steps up with new heavy-hitter, Black Flag Flying

Kingman, Arizona Nov 15, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - A significant buzz is swirling around The Haunted North's new single, Black Flag Flying, to be released on November 27. The song contains a relentless driving riff powered by a hammering progressive drum/bass bridge and accompanied by rage-filled vicious vocals.

Indeed, the lyrics seem to be stirring a conversation. Randy stated, “I rarely write lyrics about social issues. Early in my career, my mentors advised against it, with good reason. But entertainers such as Joe Rogan, Kid Rock, and Jim Breuer, for example, are currently disregarding this rule. I am following their lead. When I heard Sean’s riff, I knew it was time to get off the fence. I needed to say something after nearly three years of nonsense.”

After a first listen, the groove is undeniable. The song is mean and “unapologetic,” as drummer Andrew Aubut describes it. The F-bomb is dropped nine times – not exactly subtle. When asked about it, Randy laughed and replied, “It wasn’t intentional. In the last three years, North America has suffered under ridiculous censorship - like the First Amendment doesn’t apply to rational questions or legitimate observations anymore. The biggest choice I had to make in writing the lyrics was whether to use ‘I’ or ‘we.’ I went with the singular for two reasons. It’s my rant. People will embrace it for themselves, but this rant is mine. More importantly, the inhuman criminals I am singing about frequently use the word ‘we’ as a weapon. It’s all part of their collectivist war on pronouns, actually, their war on the individual.”

I can’t help but crank this up and rock out to it. I find myself singing the lines and moving uncontrollably. In typical Haunted North fashion, you move to the groove. They really did it this time. This song is a slamming unrepentant statement of our times.

New: Song Black Flag Flying

You take everything we are, everything we feel
You told the truth about a future you would steal
Money, money, take it all away
One way or another you will pay
Talking heads on screens are calling for war
The news is nothing but a greedy lying whore
Two weeks to flatten the curve and we’ll all be well
Two weeks turned into three years of f*&%ing hell
Black flag flying
All your f*&%ing lying
It’s a good day for dying
Black flag flying
You took our freedom, took our lives
Now you want to take our bread
I can’t forgive the king of crimes
Time to avenge the dead
I’m not one to forgive, I’m not one to forget
F*&% the new world order, F*&% the gr3@at r3s3t
Black flag flying
All your f*&%ing lying
It’s a good day for dying
Black flag flying
[Bridge]
Black flag flying
All your f*&%ing lying
It’s a good day for dying
Black flag flying
I’m not one to forgive,
I’m not one to forget

F*&% the new world order

F*&% the gr3@t r3s3t

PREVIEW SONG

SPOTIFY

The Haunted North

Lyrics and vocals: Randy V

Music and guitars: Sean Francis

Bass Guitar: Dan Belhumeur

Drums: Andrew Aubut

Management: Armi Jarvis

Black Flag Flying sound engineers

Drums and bass guitar: Eric Sills, Stone Soup Studios, Maumee, OH

Vocals: Jeremy Daniel, Cosmic Soup Recording, Phoenix, AZ

Guitars: Matt Facca, Facca Studios. Saskatoon, SK

Final Mix: Christopher Newton, Luna Sound, Seattle, WA

Mastering: Justin Shturtz, Sterling Sound, New York, NY

Produced by Randy V

Media Contact

ARMI JARVIS

White_Choker@proton.me

Source : ARMI OF ONE MEDIA & WHITE CHOKER PUBLISHING, LLC

See on IssueWire