1- Ra (King of the gods)

The Egyptian god "Ra" was considered the main sun god, the king of the gods, and worshiped in all of Egypt. "Ra" merged with several gods; the most important was Amon. The sun god Ra represents sun worship. Ra represents three aspects. In the evening, he was renamed Khepri and assumed the form of a young boy. At noon, he is called Ra, with his usual appearance and the head of a falcon. At sunset, he took the title of Atom and appeared as a man.
