Get to know Family Nurse Practitioner, Guerda Johnson, who serves patients in Tyler, Texas.

practitioner providing health and wellness services to individuals ages 16 and up at Smart Choice Medical Clinic in Tyler, Texas. Her focus is to help individuals have a better quality of life by aiming to understand fears, frustrations, desires, and aspirations and by helping to identify the root cause of an illness or disease by serving as a guide so those individuals can achieve an optimum level of health.

As a primary care clinic, Smart Choice offers a unique model of healthcare along with a cost-saving membership option for hard-working people having no insurance, or with high deductibles. It is the right choice for those seeking exceptional medical care for optimum health at an affordable cost for everyday medical needs.

Academically, Guerda graduated with her nursing degree from Chamberlain University College of Nursing & Public Health. She then went on to earn her Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree at The University of Texas at Tyler, after which she went back to Chamberlain University College of Nursing & Public Health to complete her Master of Science in Nursing degree.

With over 15 years of overall healthcare experience, Guerda has worked in various hospital settings, private practice, and correctional care.

Attributing her success to her education and research, she feels the key to success is to really listen to her patients so that she can discover new things about them.

A Family Nurse Practitioner (FNP) is an advanced practice registered nurse who works autonomously or in collaboration with other healthcare professionals, to deliver family-focused care. Given the rather broad nature of the “family” patient population focus, FNPs offer a wide range of healthcare services that revolve around the family unit; from health promotion and disease prevention to direct care and counseling across the lifespan.
