(Motivation & Confidence Volume 2) by Tommy Danger is officially out on all streaming platforms. The 15-track album is a positive step in the right direction, steering away from the oversaturated content plaguing today's Hip-Hop culture.

Keeping a circle of like-minded individuals, Tommy Danger instantly connects with producer Dom_Brady, and featured artist A.M Ceralvo on the tracks "Winning" and "Shining." The trio's chemistry is on full display as he drops motivational lyricism over crisp instrumentals you can't help but enjoy.

Songs like "Legendary" and "Big Energy" are excellent examples of the versatility and skill the Harlem rapper showcases on the project. The flow-driven tracks are on separate sides of the Hip-Hop spectrum but still knock through your speakers equally. Whether on a late-night ride through the city or a packed dancefloor, Tommy Danger has you covered.

A music video for the track "Simple Life" (directed by Ocho Visuals) is also in the works, with no official release date set at this time. Subscribe to the YouTube channel and set a reminder for the premiere. For more music-related news and business inquiries, follow Tommy Danger by clicking the links below.
