PRESENCE DRIVEN

PAUL ELLIS

Chattanooga, Tennessee Nov 9, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - Everyone has a purpose, and we were born with it. But having a purpose is not enough. Purpose without the Lord's presence connected to it has no reason. It is only when our purpose connects with His presence that we are able to achieve our divine destiny and leave a lasting legacy that inspires others to become Presence-Driven.

Are you a Christian believer? Do you trust God when life appears overwhelming? Have you ever found your purpose? Paul Ellis reveals the meaning of life from a Christian perspective. Embark on a spiritual journey by finding the answers as life and faith are intermingled. As Paul goes through the Bible stories, he shows us that there is no limit to what can be done when the purpose is presence driven. Such a wonderful resource for anyone who is struggling to find the light in their lives.

Presence Driven is a well-written book that lays out a fundamental foundation of what it looks like to journey with God. It is a profound and intellectually invigorating book that accomplishes so much in even just a few pages. Everyone has a purpose, and we were born with it. This genuine masterpiece addresses life issues and how to cope and triumph over the trials we all go through.

Moreover, writer Ellis brings together stories from the Holy Bible and recollections from his personal experiences that undeniably reinforces God's purposes in his life. With a few lingering questions, this book turns into a contemplative journey that inspires soul-searching and deep reflections toward self-improvement. The secret to a truly meaningful life doesn't involve more comfort or ease. By choosing God and acknowledging His presence, one can experience salvation and will get to find their life's abiding purpose.

"Presence Driven" unfolds a revelation that we need to be able to live empowered and purpose driven lives that produce miraculous results. Everything has a purpose, but it is only when the purpose and the presence come together that we can experience the power of God at work. The initial thought that the Holy Spirit gave to Paul was, "Without my presence, your purpose has no reason."

Paul Ellis has been in pastoral ministry for over 35 years. Pastoral ministry for 30 years. He has traveled to 11 countries, speaking at pastor/church leadership conferences; and ministering in several dozen churches, as well as having the opportunity, as a guest teacher, to teach at three different Bible Schools in Russia. He has traveled extensively through twelve countries ministering in several hundred churches. He and His wife Valorie have been married for forty years. They have four sons, two daughters-in-law, and four granddaughters. Paul is originally from San Diego, CA., and now resides in Chattanooga, TN.
