

Ollys TV nominated for Outstanding Contribution to music at Black & Irish B.I.G awards

Ollys TV seeks to cement the Irish music scene as a movement to be taken seriously.

Dunshaughlin, Meath Nov 3, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - Olawale Gazal has been nominated alongside A92, Confamm Charlito, DJ Jesse, Jsafo, Lilo Blues, Mixed by Simba, Nesto Productions, and Prod Solo at the Black & Irish awards. The Nigerian-born, self-made Entrepreneur rose to prominence this year following his annual Award ceremony of Irelands Best Artists(I.B.A) 2020 and 2021. Ollys TV has just finished a new anticipated Freestyle team coming soon on the platform later in 2023.

The 2nd Gala awards for the recognition of Black Irish creatives will be held over the weekend in the Hilton Hotel in Dublin with the aim of celebrating Ireland's most influential and rising stars of the Black and mixed-race community.

The awards were run by Black & Irish, an organisation set up last year after the death of George Floyd to highlight and celebrate the identity of black and mixed-race Irish people.

The Black & Irish Awards were hosted by Black and Irish and For The Culture Fest and recognized the success and outstanding achievements of emerging and established talent across ten different fields in the Media and Entertainment space.

Media Contact

Ollys TV

ollystvgram@gmail.com

Source : Ollys TV

See on IssueWire