Get to know Pulmonologist Dr. Paul J. Goebel, who serves patients in Fresno, California.

New York City, New York Nov 14, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - A fellowship-trained pulmonologist, Dr. Goebel can be found on staff at Saint Agnes Medical Center in Fresno, California.

Active in patient care, he has 25 years of experience as chief of medicine, managing 90 staff, primary care, specialty care, and all aspects of inpatient medicine.

Before embarking on his professional journey, Dr. Goebel graduated with his medical degree from the University of California Davis School of Medicine in 1980. He then went on to perform his residency in internal medicine at the University of California (San Francisco)/Fresno in 1984, and his fellowship in pulmonary disease and critical care medicine at the University of California Davis Health in 1987.

Successful in his field, the doctor is board-certified in internal medicine and pulmonary disease by the American Board of Internal Medicine (ABIM). The ABIM is a physician-led, non-profit, independent evaluation organization driven by doctors who want to achieve higher standards for better care in a rapidly changing world.

Licensed to practice medicine in California, Dr. Goebel is affiliated with Veterans Affairs Central California Health Care System-Fresno and Clovis Community Medical Center.

Pulmonology is a medical specialty that deals with diseases involving the respiratory tract. A pulmonologist is an internal medicine physician who specializes in preventing, diagnosing, and treating conditions and diseases that affect the lungs, bronchial tubes, and the respiratory system, including the nose, pharynx, and throat.

In 2018, Dr. Goebel was selected as Saint Agnes Medical Center's Champion in Care award recipient. This honor is presented annually to a Saint Agnes physician who shows team spirit and a strong willingness to collaborate with the Center's nurses and clinical staff in providing high-level patient care.
