

Political Thriller Author Mikael Carlson Receives a Silver Medal from Readers' Favorite

Mikael Carlson received a silver medal at the Readers' Favorite award ceremony on November 19th in Miami, Florida, in the Thriller-Political category for "Justifiable Deceit."

Miami, Florida Nov 22, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - Mikael Carlson, the award-winning author of highly-rated political fiction novels including “The iCandidate,” “The Black Swan Event,” and “The Eyes of Others,” received his silver medal from Readers’ Favorite in a ceremony held at the Hilton Blue Lagoon in Miami, Florida.

Readers’ Favorite is one of the largest book review and award contest sites on the Internet. They have earned the respect of renowned publishers like Random House, Simon & Schuster, and Harper Collins and have received the “Best Websites for Authors” and “Honoring Excellence” awards from the Association of Independent Authors. They are also fully accredited by the BBB (A+ rating), a rarity among Book Review and Book Award Contest companies.

“It’s an honor to be recognized alongside some of the best authors in the country,” Carlson explains. “They have poured their hearts and souls into the work, and it’s great to come down to Miami again and celebrate along with them.” Mikael Carlson also won a Readers’ Favorite silver medal for his inaugural work, “The iCandidate,” in 2014. Readers’ Favorite receives submissions from independent authors, small publishers, and publishing giants such as Random House, HarperCollins, and Simon & Schuster, with contestants that range from the first-time, self-published author to New York Times bestsellers.

The events, the people involved, and the suspected coverups trigger a media frenzy, catapulting Justifiable Deceit to its brilliant, hoped-for ending. I’m not all that sure if the word “unputdownable” has made it into the dictionary yet, but honestly, it’s the best word to describe my reaction to Justifiable Deceit by Mikael Carlson.
