Techno Sami is a YouTuber, musical artist, and educational content creator. He was born on June 5th, 2002. At present, he is living in Dhaka with his family.

His music resonates with the youth of Bangladesh and trying to express the current social and emotional status of the youth. Although he is mainly a rapper, he experiments and exploits other genres by collaborating with different artists all over the country.

Sami Khan (Techno Sami) made his most memorable video with his companions in 2018. Then, at that point, in 2019, he began chipping away at YouTube. In any case, he was not fruitful on YouTube. Then, at that point, he made a Facebook page. He made a few instructive recordings, however sadly, none of his recordings got many perspectives. Thus, he quit making recordings. However, in 2020 after the lockdown for the Coronavirus infection, he was excessively exhausted sitting at home and chose to make recordings once more. Lastly one of his recordings became a web sensation on Facebook which got 1M+ perspectives on Facebook. Then, at that point, the brilliant period came for him. He was getting an ever-increasing number of devotees on his Facebook and Instagram. Furthermore, presently has an immense measure of crowd/supporters via web-based entertainment stages.

In 2022, he delivered his most memorable soundtrack name ' Party Baby ' and began working in the music business as a melodic craftsman. He has proactively transferred a great deal of music and soundtrack on global music stages. His music is accessible on various music stages like Spotify, Apple Music, Amazon Music, iTunes, Deezer, SoundCloud, Flowing, JioSaavn, and other global stages.

The question of many is why Sami Khan uses the name, Techno Sami. Basically, Sami Khan is always busy with new innovations, and new content, he has given himself another name in the virtual world, Techno Sami.

The main goal of Techno Sami is to remove unemployment from the country and to make the youth of the country interested in developing various freelancing skills. Techno Sami through his content calls the youth of the country towards freelancing.
