

Why is Birdfy the top gift choice on Amazon?

Los Angeles, California Nov 25, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - What do you consider a perfect gift? Good looking, usefulness, interest or design..... These all could be the reasons for paying dollars. Netvue Birdfy is one of them that fits your every imagination for a bird feeder, and that's why Birdfy stays the top gift choice on Amazon.

1. The value of birdwatching

There are more than 45 million bird lovers in the US, and more people are on the way to joining the community. What makes birdwatching a trend?

The spread of COVID-19 has disrupted the way people live. Life could be uncertain, but birdwatching wouldn't change so much, it is still a beneficial experience for people's mental and physical health. In the middle of your stressful work, take a look at those lovely birds that could actually calm you down and smooth your overworked brain, especially for those people who have a high blood pressure issue.

What's more, you can still do some physical activities at home, with some seeds drawing attention, you may have all kinds of birds singing beside you. With Birdfy in yards, you could embrace nature at home.

Instead of going outside and spending time following the path of birds, Netvue Birdfy has rediscovered a new way of birdwatching, you can enjoy all of the serene and quiet time just in your house without chasing birds all along.

A perfect gift should be given to yourself and beyond. You may discover a new friendship if you take up birdwatching. An interest in birds may bring together people from all jobs, ages, and backgrounds, which could stay a long time. To show their support, the Netvue team built a beloved community for bird lovers to share their precious moments with birds, people here share the same habit and connections through Netvue Birdfy.

2. Smart AI brings a new experience

To enjoy birdwatching, an important and unfriendly part for beginners is to recognize bird species, but even pros may get confused sometimes. Luckily, Netvue Birdfy can lead you straight to the fun part and a brand new experience, which is the spirit of a good gift.

As the first AI tech-applied camera, Birdfy can recognize over 6000 bird species. With feeding some seeds, there is nothing more pleasing than watching and naming each bird that pops up in front of your camera.

With motion-detection support, the Birdfy camera can capture all the "birds coming moments" automatically for your future downloads. Want to see birds live? Sure! Birdfy offers live-streamed video all day long, a notification will be sent to your phone instantly once the camera detects a bird, so you will never miss a thing.

3. A qualified design guaranteed

For a gift, you should never miss its quality, luckily, the high-standard IP65 weatherproof gives Birdfy the ability to work properly under any weather. From sunshine to rain, from warm to cold, not an issue for Netvue Birdfy.

For installation, Netvue provides many accessories that fit scenes in the yard, and spare your imagination, Birdfy can be mounted easily on walls, tree trunks, railings, or tripods.
