

G-Spyro: Plans On Collecting More Dividends As His Success In The Industry Grows

Los Angeles, California Dec 5, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - G-Spyro is an aspiring recording artist from Chicago. Growing up in Chicago has never been a breeze. The traumatic events that took place there actually inspired him to create music and pursue it as more than a hobby. January 2022 was the exact month he discovered his drive to take on music as a career. After creating his first couple of songs, he could hone in on his sound. His style is energetic, passionate, playful, versatile, authentic, and beautiful.

His most recent release is his single "Dividends" which also has a visual out as well. The song is picking up fast and receiving a lot of love from his fans and followers which is called the "Spykids". Right now he is focused on the growth of this particular record while he also focuses on newer projects. He is currently working on a country song that he is really excited about. In the meantime stream "Dividends" out now on all platforms.
