

James Redinski, DO, Nephrologist

Get to know Nephrologist Dr. James Redinski, who serves patients in Florida.

New York City, New York Dec 27, 2022 (IssueWire.com) - Dr. Redinski is an excellent nephrologist skilled in disease prevention, treatment, education, and clinical research. He is also certified in Advanced Cardiac Life Support (ACLS) and Basic Life Support (BLS).

Throughout his academic career, he obtained his Bachelor of Science degree in Molecular Biology from the Bloomberg University of Pennsylvania in 2012, and earned his Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from the Lake Erie College of Osteopathic Medicine in 2017. He then went on to further his training by completing his residency in internal medicine at the Regional Medical Center Bayonet Point in 2020, and a fellowship in nephrology at Tampa General Hospital in 2022, both through the educational system of the USF Morsani College of Medicine.

As a testament to his continued education, the doctor is board-certified in internal medicine by the American Board of Internal Medicine (ABIM). The ABIM is a physician-led, non-profit, independent evaluation organization driven by doctors who want to achieve higher standards for better care in a rapidly changing world.

Nephrology is a specialty of medicine and pediatrics that concerns itself with the kidneys. It is the study of normal kidney function and kidney disease, the preservation of kidney health, and the treatment of kidney disease, from diet and medication to renal replacement therapy. Nephrologists have advanced training in treating kidney disease. They diagnose and treat kidney failure, as well as help patients by prescribing medications, offering special diet advice, and coordinating dialysis care or kidney transplantation when it becomes necessary.
