The Pop music artist from Perth O'Neill Fernandes is gifting the Christmas album 'An Aussie Xmas' to his fans and followers. It is already out on SoundCloud!

South Australia, Dec 8, 2022 (Issuewire.com) - An exceptionally talented self-taught musician from Australia very recently released his Christmas tribute for his well-wishers and fans all over the world. O'Neill Fernandes, a well-known instrumental artist from Perth delivered some remixed classical nostalgic tunes. He composed a twenty soundtrack album 'An Aussie Xmas'. His great fascination with beats and electronic guitar is noticed here. Listening to these tracks is heart-touching as it reminds the wonderful, everlasting, and affectionate creations of all time. As a pop artist, his tonal configurations are praiseworthy which creates a beautiful connection between the composition and his listeners.

Skilfully using a bass with drums, synthesizer, and electric guitar, his recreations are enough to take your soul to the vintage era. Conventional rhythmic touch and Christmas warmth are soulfully used here by the Pop music artist from Perth. As an instrumentalist, he carefully kept the actual essence of the worldwide celebration and the strength of belief in it. The blending of pure melody and pop music helped these sound stripes to fill its aura with purity and the festival's true identity. Christmas is a time of merriness, peace, and positivity, and 'An Aussie Xmas' will surely be a great contribution to instrumental pop lovers.

O'Neill Fernandes is now a popular pop genre artist and an enthusiastic Mobile Dj who is consistently sharpening his qualities, he is accumulating the attention of music lovers. His only intention is to create good music and for that, he is on his way to upgrading himself. Some of the soundtracks from this album are 'Driving Home For Christmas', and 'Jingle Bells'. 'Christmas (Baby Please)', 'Do They Know It's Christmas', 'Santa Clause Is Back In Town' and 'Mistletoe And Wine' are very interesting to listen to. You can subscribe to him on YouTube, listen to his latest on SoundCloud, and follow him on Facebook.
