This competition of the decade is brought to you by Surf4Cars! Win free fuel for 10 years!!! And weekly spot prizes to be won.

Ask any South African what they hate spending money on and they will tell you: FUEL. Whether your car runs on petrol or diesel, this year has destroyed your fuel budget. Inflation has hit fuel harder than anything else and the knock-on effect is astonishing. ENTER NOW

Even if you don't own a car, this price increase affects you in so many ways.

So, with that in mind, Surf4Cars brings South Africans a competition that will take that pain away for ten entire years!

Yes, Surf4Cars is giving away a decade's worth of fuel to a lucky winner.

The next time you will have to pay for fuel is 2033!

While other companies have run competitions where grand prize winners received free fuel for a year or R10 000 fuel vouchers, we are not aware of anyone ever offering a decade of free fuel. If the winner does not own a vehicle, the prize is transferable for cash.

Entering is fast and Easy!

Not only is this prize something we have never seen before, but it is also as easy as ABC to enter.

- All you have to do is go to surf4cars.co.za/competitions/ and enter your name, and contact number.
- The system then automatically gives you your personalised referral link and QR code which you then copy and
- share as much as you like among your friends and on all your social media accounts. When your contacts enter using your code, you get additional entries, thereby increasing your chances.

This competition truly has all the elements of greatness: it's easy to enter and the prize has that life-changing wow factor. This one, however, will activate the reward centres of your wallet too! Just think about what you can do with all that extra cash you will have every month – for the next 240 months...

Weekly spot prizes:

Start entering now and do your friends a Favour by getting them in on the action too. Whether you're sharing on LinkedIn, WhatsApp, Facebook, Instagram, or TikTok, it all adds up to a better chance for you to enjoy free-fuel motoring for the next ten years and our weekly spot prize draws!
