

12 years old Musical Prodigy Jordan Miles Releases His First Single 'LOVE LETTER'

The 12 years old musical whizz-kid Jordan Miles has released his newest pop single 'LOVE LETTER', bringing in the freshness and nostalgia of old-school romance.

Columbus, Jan 30, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Having won first place among over 300 artists in the Coast2Coast World Championship in Miami, the 12 years old musical prodigy from Columbus Ga, Jordan Miles, is creating sensations with his latest single 'LOVE LETTER', co-written by Marco Richh. Kicking back fun into the modern pop scene, this colorful new number is imbued with infectious energy and romance. The song features a refreshing mix of pop-punk guitars with upfront vocals creating an impressive soundscape of immersive and cleanly mixed sound design. The verses ooze with positivity and optimism and delve into Jordan's impeccable story-telling caliber. The power-packed hooks only add to the strength of lyricism and create an amicable earworm that remains in the hearts of listeners long after the song is over.

'LOVE LETTER' stands as a timeless piece of classic pop music and breathes a new life into the genre. The verses remind listeners of the swoon-worthy old-school romances and create an atmosphere of romantic fantasy that they can indulge in while thinking about their special ones. The entire piece is a welcome twist of brightness with a freshness of style, and familiar yet catchy melodies. The delivery of the song is faultless and reverberates with enthralling relativity and good vibes.

The musical virtuoso from Richards Middle School Jordan Miles has already set the bar high in the industry with this release and has been winning the hearts of music lovers across the globe. To listen
