BHOOKH

a short film

Navi Mumbai, Maharashtra Jan 13, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Bollywood stories inspired many people, and the reverse is also true, as everyday life can and often does inspire it. As Bollywood films constantly seek to make us laugh, entertain, uplift, and exclaim, it's a complete roller coaster of emotions that makes us witness on a big screen. Presenting you the poster of one such movie which will make you witness the emotions through a very strong message which will just get embedded in us forever, Bhookh Film released the first official poster of the movie, which really looks very confusing for us as an audience to understand what this is going to be all about, but for that undoubtedly we need to wait till the 25th of October to witness that movie on the big screen. The poster looks very promising yet very interesting as we can see Abhishek Rotliwala who is the film Edior, director, and producer of the film The movie also stars kush as a parallel lead.

On wearing those various hats for the film Abhishek Rotliwala exclaims his excitement saying, "I am very excited and happy that the movie is finally releasing soon." The movie has indeed gone through a lot of planning and plotting. My main aim for the movie was to give something very interesting to the audience with a major twist but with a strong message and I hope that the audience will accept this movie and take that strong message back with them. kush has done an excellent job on it. His character will amaze you as well. The poster is something that I am really in love with because, indeed it sends out some of the other strong messages indirectly, which will reach you through big screens, so just "stay tuned", says Abhishek Rotliwala
