

Diego Fernandes Upcoming Artist of 2023

New Single “Hope” coming to every streaming platform on January 20th.

Atsugi, Kanagawa Jan 21, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - Hailing from Brazil, Diego Fernandes was born on September 3rd, 1995, and moved to Japan when he was 5 years old because of his parents who were living in the country. Growing up, Diego spent a lot of time listening to music, allured by the spell-binding force of Pop, Electro Pop, and EDM- genres that he considered his favorite.

Drawing inspiration from the likes of icons, such as Justin Bieber, ZAYN, and Zedd, Diego began creating his own cover songs, followed by an original take on the genre, with his first song, titled "Believe". Curated in collaboration with music producer John Ho and talented songwriter Jimmy Burney, "Believe" featured the best of the artist's musical prowess and composing skills.

In December 2021 he contacted the Songwriter to begin working on his Second Single Called "Hope" he takes almost half a year to complete the song, and on January 20th of 2023 his Second Single will be available on all streaming platforms.

Diego's musical voyage began in 2017 when he first attended a Music Festival in Japan called 'Pop Spring' - fully enraptured and amazed by the thrilling performances of artists such as Shawn Mendes. A turning event in his life, the festival instilled within Diego a newfound sense of love, passion, and adoration for music, encouraging him to follow a career as a musician. Speaking Japanese, Portuguese, and English, Diego Fernandes is a talented and prolific artist, who brings with himself a unique style and vocal prowess which is unmatched in energy and melody.
