The birth name of emerging American rapper 'KoviNo' is Julius Ryan Caldwell but he is popularly and professionally known as KoviNo among his fans. He was born on October 30, 1993, in San Diego, California. Currently, he is stationed in El Paso, Texas. He has appeared on the horizon of American rap music as an independent artist (indie). Additionally, he is also an experienced songwriter and audio engineer.

Life before music:

KoviNo was raised by his single mother and grandmother along with his 2 younger siblings. KoviNo and his family had to go through a lot of hardships. Life truly hit them when his grandmother passed away in 2015, a year after he had already left college where he was studying sound engineering, due to financial hardships. Now he had to manage two jobs simultaneously in order to sustain himself and his family. Life went on and he was recruited into Army in 2016. There he worked for 3 years but he had to leave it 3 years later on medical grounds. It was these hardships that carved a strong person out of KoviNo.

KoviNo is an experienced and professional creative artist who started producing creatively when he was only 10. He started by writing poetry. He was around 13 when he developed an interest in hip-hop. The phase between 2009 – 2013 is considered the beginning of his professional career. During this time, he released a catalog of unheard music to a selected audience. Later on, he went to a college in San Diego where he took music engineer. Due to financial constraints, he had to leave college and work for earning a livelihood for himself and his family. During the time he was in the army (2016-2019), he did not abandon his craze for music and kept up with it. He also built a studio in his barrack where he used to do music during his free hours.
