Get to know Pain Management Specialist Dr. Matthew Porter, who serves patients in Longview, Texas.

New York City, New York Jan 20, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Dr. Porter is a pain management specialist who describes himself as attentive, genuine, and caring. He is currently a part of the team of professionals at Longview Orthopaedic Clinic Association in Texas.

There, he enjoys actively listening to each person to understand how he can best help, being approachable and allowing each patient an opportunity to be heard, and finding the best-individualized treatment plan for each patient. His proudest professional moment is seeing his patients achieve a greater level of function as their pain improves.

Longview Orthopaedic Clinic is one of the oldest and largest surgical practices in East Texas specializing in orthopaedic surgery. Committed to providing the highest quality care available, all of the orthopaedic surgeons have training in general orthopaedics. Some also have additional specialized training in sports medicine, spine surgery, hand surgery, foot and ankle surgery, and robotic-assisted joint replacement. Their goal is to deliver exceptional patient care one cannot find at other orthopaedic practices. From the simplest aches and pains to the most severe cases requiring surgery, the team will treat each patient with compassion, honesty, and unparalleled customer service.

A 2014 graduate of St. George's University School of Medicine, Dr. Porter went on to complete a pain medicine management and rehabilitation assistantship from 2014 until 2015. He then performed a postdoctoral fellowship in anesthesia critical care research with the University of Pennsylvania Health System in 2016, and a residency in family medicine at Conemaugh Memorial Medical Center in 2019.

A member of the American Society of Interventional Pain Physicians, the doctor is board-certified in family medicine by the American Board of Family Medicine (ABFM). The ABFM is a non-profit, independent medical association of American physicians who practice family medicine and its sub-specialties.

Since January 2022, Dr. Porter has been serving as the Director of a Regenerative Medicine Clinic. He is also affiliated with Longview Regional Medical Center.

Pain management is a branch of medicine employing an interdisciplinary approach to easing the suffering and improving the quality of life of those living with chronic pain. A pain management specialist is a doctor who specializes in pain medicine, focusing on the evaluation, treatment, and prevention of pain.
