TALENTS, ABILITIES, AND GIFTS TO EMPOWER AMBITIOUS MEMBERS

Atlanta, Georgia Jan 6, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Three months after graduating high school, she walked into a strip club for the first time in her life. She was searching for answers on how to achieve her dream of dancing and getting paid. That dream was achieved by becoming an exotic dancer at the age of 18. After a mental crisis, a major identity crisis and 15 years in the adult entertainment industry did Sayuri Smith-Timmons permanently transition from the stripper lifestyle. Twenty- three years later she founded TAG TEAM INC., an organization dedicated to supporting women in adult entertainment through entrepreneurship scholarships. TAG TEAM, which stands for Talents, Abilities, and Gifts To Empower Ambitious Members, also awards middle and high school students with entrepreneurship support to prevent them from entering harmful lifestyles such as drug distribution, prostitution, and gang affiliation.

On Saturday, April 8, 2023 TAG TEAM INC will host its first Annual High Tea Luncheon Fundraiser at the Russell Center for Entrepreneurship in Atlanta, Georgia. This year attendees will dress in the '80s and '90s high tea fashion. Speakers include women who have survived the adult entertainment industry: Shawana Smiley, Leschelle Ramirez, Tanesha Clancey, and Sayuri Smith-Timmons, CPS.
