Get to know Educational Specialist & Curriculum Developer Stephanie A. Welch, in Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

New York City, New York Jan 19, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - Stephanie has been serving as the Medical Assisting Program Director at Keiser University since 2018. She is a dedicated and passionate executive with extensive experience in curriculum development, teaching, educational leadership, learning and development, and academic program management.

She has a proven track record of creating and implementing facilitation guides, training materials, and innovative/targeted learning solutions aligned with crucial talent development and business strategies. She also has expertise in planning and implementing leadership programs and comprehensive student support services to promote student development in multicultural and inclusive learning environments.

Stephanie is instrumental in improving and delivering learning opportunities, executing teaching methods/multimedia approaches, and enhancing students' performance. She is adept at recruiting, training, mentoring, and directing cross-functional teams to achieve shared visions and goals. She also has strong knowledge of medical assisting, cardiopulmonary resuscitation, nursing, medical terminology, and cardiology.

Likewise, she excels at delivering advising services, including registration, evaluation of program requirements, incomplete grades, student class activities, satisfactory academic progress, and overall degree/career progress. She has a solid history of success in using best practices to create strategies and address student issues, negatively impacting academic/personal success.

Academically, Stephanie graduated with her Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree from UAMS College of Nursing in 2010. She then went on to earn her Master's degree in Education and Sports Administration from the University of Miami in 2017, and her Doctor of Education degree in Organizational Leadership from Grand Canyon University in 2022.

Attributing her success to having great mentors, Stephanie is an active member of the Palm Beach Medical Society and a Registered Medical Assistant. She also holds certification in Basic Life Support for Healthcare Providers (BLS) through the American Heart Association.
