London, United Kingdom Jan 11, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - Bibi Apampa, Founder and CEO of The Retirement Queen, has been named the recipient of the Education and Training Award 2022 for Best Wealth Strategist in Africa. Bibi Apampa is the founder of The Retirement Queen, a leading financial planning firm that helps individuals and businesses to plan and make decisions for a better financial future through proper financial planning, wealth management, and retirement planning services.

This prestigious award honours her outstanding contributions to the field of financial planning and wealth management, particularly in the areas of retirement planning and wealth preservation. She has become a respected authority on financial planning, wealth management, and retirement planning due to her dedication over the past 15 years in the industry.

Apampa said: "It is an honour to receive this award for my work in helping people plan their financial future. I am pleased to be recognized as one of Africa's leading wealth strategists." She added: "I have been working with clients since 2007 who are looking to make informed decisions about their finances so they can enjoy their golden years with peace of mind. My mission is to help them achieve their goals by providing them with professional advice and guidance based on sound research findings. My passion lies in helping people realise their dreams.

Bibi's extensive experience in the industry has allowed her to develop a unique perspective on making sure that people have access to quality advice that is beneficial for their long-term financial well-being. Her commitment to excellence has led her to create an innovative approach to helping clients maximise their retirement savings while minimising their liabilities. Bibi's extensive network of clients includes some of Africa's most prominent entrepreneurs and business leaders who trust her with their most important assets.

The Education and Training Award 2022 for Best Wealth Strategist in Africa by Corporate Vision UK is an annual award that recognizes excellence in business education, training, and mentoring. It is given to an education provider who has shown a commitment to developing tomorrow's wealth strategist. This award is presented to an individual who has made a significant contribution to the development of wealth strategies in Africa.
