

Canada-Based Artist and Producer Zarbo Sets Himself a Class Apart with His Two New Songs

The Canada-based artist and producer Zarbo creates the perfect musical concoction with two electrifying new tracks titled 'A to Z Today' and 'They Lie'.

Calgary, Feb 14, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - Putting together retro musical flavors with piercingly soulful vocals, the talented singer Zarbo has dished out two exciting songs titled 'A to Z Today' and 'They Lie'. The two songs aim to guide listeners into an infectious and elevating groove while also clearly communicating the message that the singer wishes to convey in his verses. The sublime production creates the effect of a full-band feel that infuses electronic music designs similar to the classical era of discos and dance pops. The songs stand tall on the foundation of their set up and the artist's own stylish and distinct performance lends his songs a personal touch that becomes his trademark.

'A to Z Today' is a happy and fresh, new, and updated sound of a classic 80's pop rock song from the singer. The nostalgic vintage effect in fusion with the outright contemporary hooks and rhythms gives the song an authenticity that wins over the hearts of the listeners, the rap inserts of Malachi Mott being the icing on top. The second song 'They Lie' is a revolutionary project from the artist that draws attention to a particular self-given privilege style of sovereignty that exists in society to this day. The Canada-based artist and producer ensure that his observations are presented in such a way that it allows people to reflect and soul-search to look for and come up with solutions in our society.

The confidence that Zarbo exudes in his music can only be the result of an innate musical genius that finds expression in the voice of an artist of the highest order. Apart from these two masterpieces, the singer has time and again proven his creative flair through exceptional tracks like 'Correction In Direction (Electro Remix)' and 'Oh Momentum (Remastered 2020)'.
