

Caribbean Global Hybrid Awards 2023

Caribbean World Influencers Need Recognition and Celebration

London, United Kingdom Feb 21, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - In 2023, an extravagant ceremony called the Caribbean Global Hybrid Awards will be held to recognize the numerous achievements made by Caribbean people who have significantly impacted every sector of the economy.

Without a doubt, Michaelene Holder-March, the founder of Leaders in Health and Tech and the Caribbean Global Awards, is one of the most dynamic founders who has either pursued her start-up vision or expanded into a bold new concept to increase the prominence of Caribbean natives and their descendants. In 2023, the Caribbean Global Hybrid Awards will have its first event showcasing Caribbean influencers and unsung heroes. Everyone is looking forward to this occasion very much. Check out the website at <https://caribbeanglobalawards.com/> Caribbean Global Awards for further details.

Windrush 75 and Black History Month will be honoured this year at the Caribbean Global Hybrid Awards. The objective is that this event would raise global presence, reunite our shrinking global community, and aid in the advancement of our economy by presenting, honouring, and recognizing the efforts, successes, and achievements of Caribbean businesses, entrepreneurs, and professionals around the world. Join the Caribbean Global Awards, and before July 1, 2023, nominate a deserving person or organization. It's okay to nominate people from abroad! To finish the nomination form, use this link: bit.ly/A8hB

Media Contact

MHM Health Consultancy Ltd

cglobalawards@gmail.com

447932014644

Source : MHM Health Consultancy

See on IssueWire