Hollywood, California Feb 24, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - EXCLUSIVE: With a co-lead role in Honeycomb Film Productions' "Winterset," Hollywood actor Bruce "Busta" Soscia hits another home run. Bruce is thrilled to be playing Ned Sicro, a New York City slicker who finds himself out of place in WinterSet, Iowa. "There are so many parallels between my personal life and Ned's. This film isn't a stretch, but rather a well-crafted story that feels all too real at times. I can't wait for the rest of the world to see this incredible work by writer, director, and producer Mike Blevins. What an adventure!"

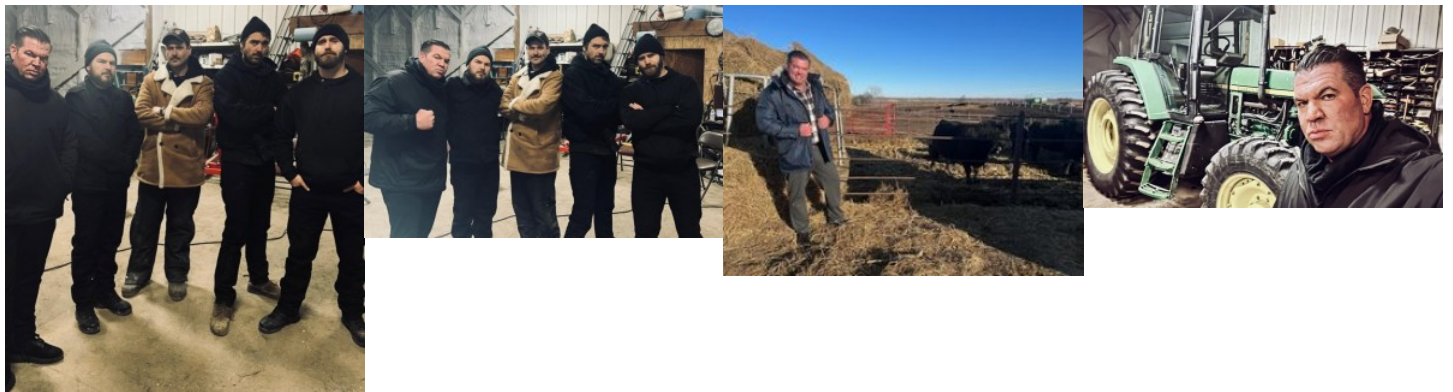

Winterset is a crime drama in which "two guys rip off this rich farmer, thinking they're taking his money but end up taking something else, and some really scary, bad guys come to town to get it back," according to the synopsis. Starring Jonah Ray, Matt Peters, Ben Gavin, Kirk Fox, Gigi Gustin, Robert Craighead, Bruce Soscia, Danielle Ricci, Martine Beerman, Robert Coppage.

Soscia is a California-born American actor, producer, and entrepreneur. He was raised in Rhode Island, between New York and Boston. He grew up in a neighborhood full of 'tough guys,' and he quickly learned to fight to survive and hustle to thrive in a world full of 'street-wise characters. He has had major success as a blue-collar barber, having built up twelve 'GQ' barber shops in Rhode Island, and is also known for his philanthropy in coordinating major charity events such as 'Stand Up To Cancer' on behalf of the American Cancer Society.
