

Kurly Na: An Artist You Should Add To Your Playlist

Los Angeles, California Feb 16, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - Kurly Na is a recording artist from Ohio. His family however originally started in London, England. Although when Kurly Na was only 8 they ventured to the states and relocated to Virginia. This is where he attended ODU and began his writing passion while studying there. His first releases dropped in 2017 and after graduating a year later he began to work harder on his music. His song "Rock wit me" totaled 20k streams and really helped get his name traveling around the community.

He had many releases after that successful debut. One of his key inspirations is Michael Jackson. He would study his performances and try to emulate his persona in his own way. Kurly Na however has his very own style. His music is melodic and rhythmic. While creating his mood depicts the vibe. Each song emulates the energy he had at the moment. His latest releases are "What's Next", "Red", and "Get Back" featuring Bebe also from Virginia. This year is all about growth and networking. In the meantime check out his latest releases!
