The image is a composite graphic. On the left is the cover of the Guinness World Records 2013 book, featuring the title 'GUINNESS WORLD RECORDS' in large, bold, black letters, with the years '20' and '13' in a colorful, multi-lined font. Below the title, it says 'INCLUDING OVER 1,000 AMAZING NEW RECORDS'. On the right is a white text box with a green background below it. The text box contains the following text: 'MOST EXPENSIVE MATCHMAKER' in bold, followed by a paragraph: 'Orly the Matchmaker of Beverly Hills, California, USA, has been running an upscale international introductions company for the last 25 years – the most expensive service of its kind in the world. Run by a former model, Orly's world-renowned, old-fashioned matchmaking skills are available for a membership fee that can cost up to $100,000 (£70,000)'. At the bottom of the text box, there is a small '>>' symbol and the letters '98' in a stylized font. The green background below the text box has a pattern of yellow, abstract, interconnected shapes.
