

Talented Pop music artist from Perth, O'Neill Fernandes is Treating His Fans with His Latest Album 'My Island Home'

The recently released album, 'My Island Home' by the gifted Pop music artist from Perth, O'Neill Fernandes is impressive in all forms. Listen to it on SoundCloud.

Brisbane, Queensland Feb 2, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - The world of instrumental music was long due to a fresh sound and the recent release by O'Neill Fernandes is rapidly filling that gap. The skillful talent has newly released an album called 'My Island Home'; in this short period, it has started gaining massive positive responses from all over the world. The artist has been in the industry for quite some time now and the most interesting thing is his passion for making music and composing can be seen in his projects. The Pop music artist from Perth has been consistent about making music and composing new and fresh tracks for his listeners. This has given his artistic creativity and innovation a new light as the pressure mixed with the joy of producing tracks always works in the favor of the artist. His recent album is the true proof of that and the endless joy that the tracks produce cannot be compared with anything else.

The album, 'My Island Home' is the sixth part of the project taken by the artist. He has aimed to cover iconic songs from each generation starting from 1966 to 2022, including bands and independent artists. This newly added album to this glorious project has a total number of 20 enjoyable tracks that bring excitement, joy, and freshness to the minds of the listeners. Mostly two of these tracks have impressed the audience the most: 'The Night Owls', and 'Star Hotel'. The song 'Star Hotel' is originally released by the Australian band 'Cold Chisel' in 1980 from their Album 'East' which indeed has become an excellent blend of musicality by O'Neill. Well, 'The Night Owls' on the other hand is a song by the Australian rock band 'Little River Band' where O'Neill has incorporated a new vision.

When the Pop music artist from Perth started this project of reminiscing memories but in a modern way through covering tracks, he aimed to bring joy and nostalgia to his listeners. The audience pool of O'Neill Fernandes consists of all age groups and genders, so the artist has successfully made them feel the emotions through his tracks. Previous works of the artist such as 'I've Got The Music In Me', 'Hurtless', 'Georgy Girl', 'Never Give Up', 'Ooh Aah...Just A Little Bit', 'Happy Birthday Helen', 'She Has To Be Loved', etc. on Soundcloud. Follow him on Facebook, LinkedIn, and YouTube for more details.

Listen to this Album on Soundcloud: <https://soundcloud.com/oneill-fernandes/sets/my-island-home>

Media Contact

Music Promotion Club

info@musicpromotion.club

Source : O'Neill Fernandes

See on IssueWire