Emergency medicine, also known as accident and emergency medicine, is the medical specialty concerned with the care of illnesses or injuries requiring immediate medical attention. An emergency physician works in an emergency department to care for acutely ill or injured patients on an unscheduled basis.

With several areas of focus in his practice, including medical education, and social media as a tool for education (FOAMed), Dr. Rezaie builds bridges between internal medicine, critical care, and emergency medicine. He is the Founder and Creator of REBEL EM and REBEL Cast, which are free, critical appraisal blog and podcast resources that aim to bridge the gap between research and clinical practice.

Alongside his work with REBEL EM and REBEL Cast, he is a Co-Creator and Co-Founder of The Teaching Institute, which aims to provide high-quality medical education resources to healthcare professionals. Through his work with The Teaching Institute, he has helped to advance the field of emergency medicine by providing valuable educational resources to medical professionals worldwide.
