

Young Bangladeshi Poet and Lyricist Ethar Akhtaruzzaman Takes the Literary World by Storm

Florida City, Florida Apr 8, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Young poet, author, and lyricist Ethar Akhtaruzzaman is quickly gaining recognition and a following in the world of poetry. Born on October 19th, 1990 in Bangladesh, Ethar Akhtaruzzaman introduces himself as the "Speaker of Silence," a fitting description for a poet whose words speak volumes.

His debut poetry book, "Noishobdher Ghor," was published in 2021 by "Aajob Prokash." The book received an overwhelming response from readers and followers, prompting the publisher to release two additional editions. Just four months after his first book, Ethar Akhtaruzzaman published his second poetry book, "Ruitoner Bibi," which received similar acclaim.

In 2023, Ethar Akhtaruzzaman released his third poetry book, "Boshonto Bibhrom," which became a best-selling poetry book at the Ekushey Boi Mela 2023. His unique writing style and visual content, as well as his own poetry recitations, gained popularity across different social media platforms, earning him more than 100k followers on his Facebook page.

Ethar Akhtaruzzaman is the first poet from Bangladesh to publish a poetry recitation collection of his own voice of his own written poetry with unique music featured named "Backspace," which is available on almost all international streaming platforms like Spotify, Amazon, and Apple Music.

Aside from his poetry, Ethar Akhtaruzzaman is also a young lyricist whose first written song, "Ferari," was published in 2011 and was named "Best Song of the Month" by popular vote from Radio Foorti listeners. His other songs like "Bondhu Tui," "Jotota Aaral Theke," "Boddobbesh," and "Aamar Aami" also received significant attention from audiences.

Most of Ethar Akhtaruzzaman's readers and followers are young and have entered poetry reading through his works. He dreams of making his city a poetic place in every aspect, and this dream has become his motto.

Ethar Akhtaruzzaman believes that poetry is one of the most powerful forms of artistic expression that reflects emotions, ideas, and experiences in a unique and compelling way. His passion for poetry has earned him the "Chalantika Shahittay Puroshkar 2022" award by popular reader choice for his second book, "Ruitoner Bibi" in 2023.

Currently, Ethar Akhtaruzzaman is working on his new poetry collection album, and more of his written songs are yet to be published. With his unique writing style and powerful voice, Ethar Akhtaruzzaman is sure to continue captivating audiences for years to come.

Media Contact

Poetry Press

alien.ethar@gmail.com

Source : https://commons.wikimedia.org/wiki/File:Ethar_Akhtaruzzaman_1.jpg

See on IssueWire