

A Church Girl With A Glock - CHELSEA KEENAN

Chelsea Keenan Debuts her highly anticipated music video for her new single 'Baby Boy', collaborating with Prod. Dior and mix/master engineer Jamerson Johnson!

Monroe, Louisiana May 2, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - ANG Records today announced the debut of Chelsea Keenan's new music video for her single Baby Boy. The sexy, stunning, and down-to-earth visuals uphold a tradition of authenticity from the Los Angeles alternative R&B visionary, upping the ante yet again.

“Babyboy is not only a well-written and produced song, but it’s authentically Chelsea and the visuals in her debut music video portray that perfectly.,” says Melanie, CEO, at Coastal Talent Agency“

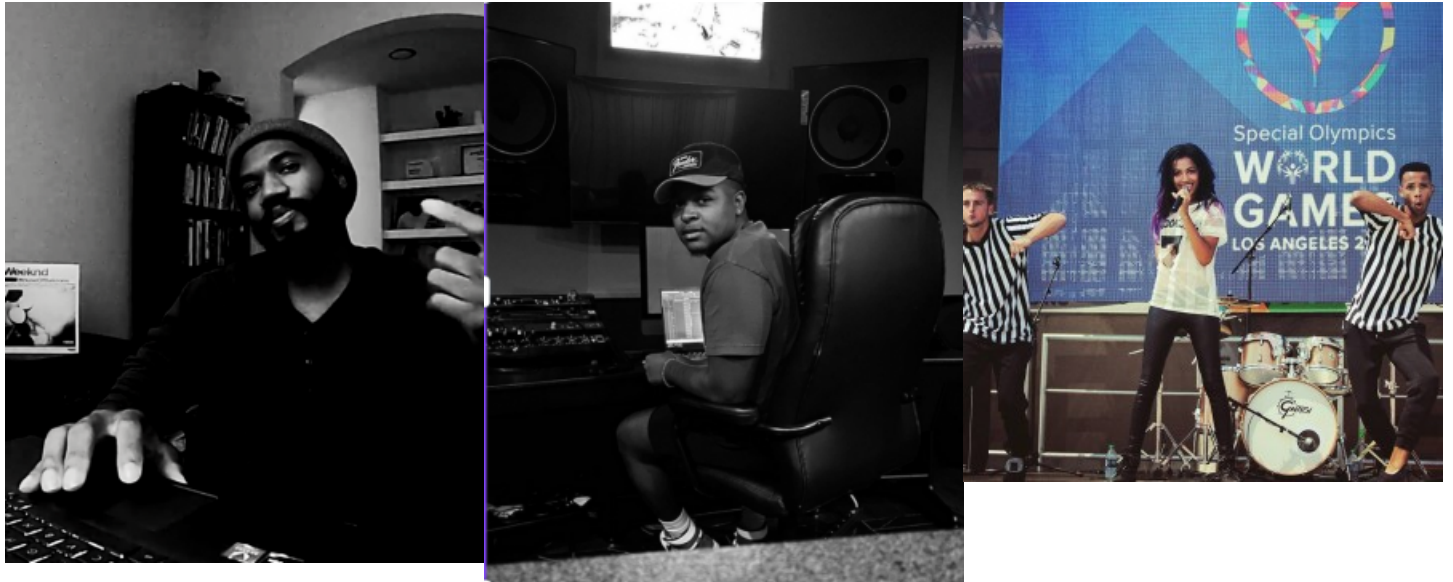

About Chelsea Keenan: Singing from NY to LA, Chelsea has used her platform to reach out and support others struggling with sickness; she has been not only an influencer but a friend and encouragement to those feeling the same way she's felt for the past few years. Chelsea uses a mix of POP and R&B and has performed at the Special Olympics, Los Angeles, House of Blues, Relay For Life, etc. Currently working on her debut Album, Chelsea is on a roll and will be releasing more music than ever in the future!

This single also features not one but two outstanding creatives!

- Dior - <https://linktr.ee/diorjorden>
- Jorden but I go by DIOR. I’m a 21-year-old music producer from Georgia, born and raised. I've been making music for about 5 years now and loving every moment of it. Growing up I never really had an interest in music. I never imagined myself to be in the position I am in today. It all started when I was scrolling through YouTube, as I do every day, and a beat-making video popped up on my feed page and I was so bored I decided to watch it. I remember watching it and being so amazed at how cool it looked so I decided to try it. I didn't have money, so I got a job at Wendy’s just to buy a laptop. I was posting beats on YouTube for a couple of months before I even made my first sale of $15. It wasn't much but I was very happy about that $15. I was raised by just my mom and she loves r&b so much it's crazy, so growing up that's all we mostly listened to so I instantly already had a connection with r&b. Once I started posting the r&b tracks I was making, people started loving them so much it was crazy, so not only do I specifically love R&b because my fans love me for it, but because it brings back memories of being that little kid again in the back of my mom’s car and us connecting with the music.
- Jamerson Johnson - https://linktr.ee/inf_j
- Taking you through the depths of sound with 10+ years of experience blending genres and pushing boundaries, Jamerson Johnson is a Houston-based mixing and mastering engineer. Music is his passion. From hours upon hours of dedicated work in the studio, he has become a true full-stack engineer. He has previously had hands-on experience as a producer, songwriter, and artist and understands what it takes at each step to create a worthy final product. He is excited to explore the new sounds of upcoming artists and help them turn their dreams into realities.

The Baby Boy music video was released Friday, April 28th!
