

Introducing MicroFILMZ: The Short Film Streaming Channel That Puts Filmmakers First

MicroFILMZ Launches with an All-Star Lineup of Short Films Featuring Top Names in the Industry

Cleveland, Ohio May 2, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - MicroFILMZ, the new short film streaming platform, is proud to announce its launch to movie fans around the world. With an impressive collection of films featuring some of the biggest names in the industry. Among the lineup are films starring Paul Rudd, Jason Sudeikis, Elizabeth Banks, Patton Oswalt, Fred Armisen, Angela Kinsey, Megan Mullally, Nick Offerman, Paul Giamatti, David Wain, and many more.

With a unique business model that shares 60% of its earnings with the filmmakers on the platform, MicroFILMZ is revolutionizing the streaming industry by prioritizing the creators who make it all possible. Film lovers can now enjoy unlimited access to an exclusive selection of short films from some of the most talented filmmakers around the globe with a simple subscription of just $19.99 per year or $1.99 per month USD. The MicroFilmz streaming channel is available on Roku and will arrive on Amazon's Fire TV later in 2023. The short film collection can also be accessed at microfilmz.com.

"Many short films are literally made with blood, sweat, tears, and a mountain of credit card debt," said Eric Swinderman, MicroFilmz's CEO. "Imagine making your money back and then enough to make your next film."

"We are honored and delighted to be able to work with such amazing talent, who will not only entertain our subscribers but hopefully be a conduit to shining a spotlight on the lesser known but incredibly talented filmmakers also on the platform," said Garrett Komyati, MicroFilmz Vice President of Acquisitions.

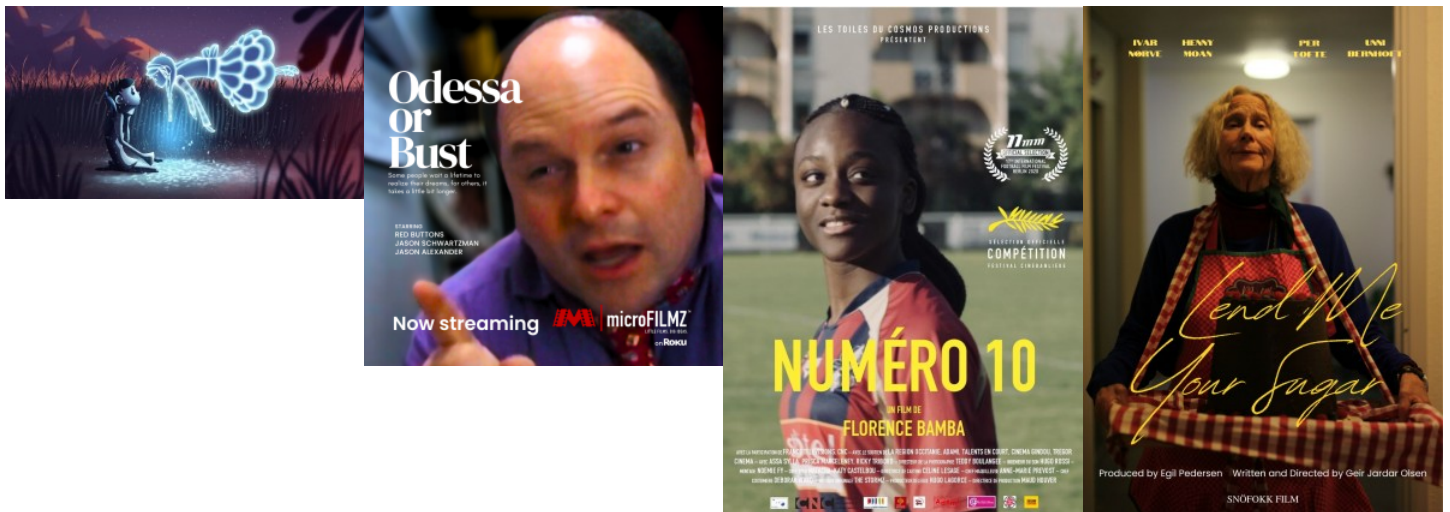

MicroFILMZ's revenue-sharing model ensures that 60% of the earnings generated go back to the artists, providing a sustainable source of income and incentivizing them to create more amazing content. The platform is more than just a streaming service; it's a community that supports and celebrates the art of filmmaking.

MicroFILMZ is now available for subscription at microfilmz.com.

Filmmakers can submit films for consideration at www.microfilmz.com/acquisitions.com.
