New York City, New York May 10, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - Dr. Del Moral is a dedicated family physician with Kaiser Permanente Westminster Medical Offices, which she joined in 2023.

Trained in primary care, she provides health care services to LGBTQ communities and integrative medicine. She is also passionate about improving access to transgender care, reproductive health services, and mental health services.

Throughout her academic career, Dr. Del Moral graduated with her medical degree from Herbert Wertheim College of Medicine at FIU in 2017. She then went on to perform her internship at Rose Medical Center, where she focused on providing primary care, serving an urban underserved community, and LGBTQ health. She also trained and gained competence in minor surgical procedures, including skin biopsies, skin tag removal, newborn circumcisions, nexplanon placement, etc.

Furthering her training with a residency in family medicine at St. Anthony North Family Medicine, Dr. Del Moral completed an extra study track in integrative medicine through the University of Arizona. She gained competency in minor surgical procedures, including joint injections (limited to knee and shoulder), IUD placement, nexplanon removal, laceration repair, nail removal, and colposcopy.

Trained in ACLS, BLS, and NRP, she is board-certified in family medicine by the American Board of Family Medicine (ABFM). The ABFM is a non-profit, independent medical association of American physicians who practice family medicine and its sub-specialties.

Family medicine is a medical specialty devoted to comprehensive health care for people of all ages. The specialist is called a family physician or family doctor. A family physician is often the first person a patient sees when seeking healthcare services. They examine and treat patients with a wide range of conditions and refer those with serious ailments to a specialist or appropriate facility.

Bilingual, Dr. Del Moral speaks both English and Spanish.
