

Grace Balbo and Brittany Mcvicker set to star in inspirational film “Just Peachy”

Los Angeles, California Jun 29, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Actress Brittany McVicker is set to embark on a new chapter in her career as she transitions into the role of director with an inspirational film, "Just Peachy." McVicker will also co-star alongside the talented Grace Balbo in this heartfelt production. Balbo, recognized for her appearances in films such as "Oak" and "Extremely Wicked, Shockingly Evil and Vile" on Netflix, brings her depth and versatility to her role, enhancing the overall impact of the film.

Adding to the excitement, "Just Peachy" reunites McVicker with esteemed Goan filmmaker Milroy Goes, who joins the project as a producer. Goes, known for his exceptional contributions to the industry, brings his wealth of experience and artistic sensibilities to further enhance the creative vision of the film.

"Just Peachy" will initially debut as a short film, with the intention of expanding into a feature film or a series. McVicker describes the unique nature of the film, stating, "There isn't really a genre for this type of film. While it primarily explores themes of faith, hope, and redemption, it also delves into heartbreakingly true-to-life situations. It reminds us that appearances can be deceiving, and that everyone is fighting their own battles, even when things seem just peachy on the outside."

Brittany McVicker's foray into directing comes at an opportune time, as her acting career continues to gain momentum. She has several upcoming projects in the pipeline, including a cameo in the CPics original series "Patel Motel" and a starring role as Samara in the Lifetime Network's "Secrets of a Celebrity Nanny." Both projects are currently in post-production and does not have a set release date.

The creative team of "Just Peachy" includes director of photography and editor William Newton, who will bring a visually stunning and impactful perspective to the film.

Currently in the pre-production stage, "Just Peachy" is scheduled to commence filming this summer, creating a buzz of anticipation within the industry.

For press inquiries, interviews, or additional information about "Just Peachy," please contact:
Deanna Sorkin
Personal Assistant
E414Production@gmail.com

Media Contact

E414 Productions

E414production@gmail.com

Source : E414 Productions

See on IssueWire