Nashville, Tennessee Jun 30, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Sam Hatmaker is set to unleash her Dark and Edgy Fusion of Goth-Hick, Americana, and Alt-Country with “Cowboys and Aliens” distributed by The Orchard and WOMP MUSIC GROUP. You can preview the new Video Premiere and Pre-Save here.

"Cowboys and Aliens" showcases Sam's unparalleled ability to blend music genres seamlessly, pushing the boundaries of traditional music and offering listeners an immersive musical experience. Hatmaker hopes others can find themselves in the lyrics and connect.

Sam a Knoxville native has been making waves with her captivating live performances, showcasing her immense talent and connecting with audiences on a profound level. Her distinct musical style and captivating stage presence have earned her a dedicated fan base and recognition from industry insiders like signing with Warner Music Nashville previously.

Produced by Fish Fisher, the single was actually created in three different cities. Nashville, Madisonville, and Toledo, OH. While in Toledo, Sam stayed the night on the grounds of an abandoned amusement park to feed her love for dark/creepy/horror-esque things...
