

Young Jewish Professionals (YJP) to Hold Annual 40 Under 40 Gala in New York City

YJP will hold its annual gala and award ceremony on June 20th to honor young professionals, business leaders, and rising stars in the Jewish community.

New York City, New York Jun 13, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Young Jewish Professionals (YJP) will be holding its Annual 40 Under 40 Gala, honoring forty CEOs, executives, entrepreneurs, and rising corporate talent in the Jewish community. The gala will be taking place on June 20th in Manhattan, with over 400 members of the tri-state area's business class in attendance.

The award ceremony will be led by entrepreneur and news host Katie Sands. Ms. Sands is a fashion correspondent on the TODAY Show, GMA, and E! Entertainment, co-host of Cheddar's "Wake Up with Cheddar," and runs a successful lifestyle account, @itskatiesands (formerly @honestlykate).

The forty 2023 honorees will be joining YJP as members and are contributing to YJP's mission of inspiring and cultivating the next generation of Jewish business leaders and philanthropists. "We are looking forward to an unforgettable evening. We have an extremely impressive group of young and dedicated professionals and we are looking forward to seeing them become involved in YJP as mentors," said Daniella Hen, Associate Manager of Programs at YJP.

In addition to the award ceremony there will be a grand celebration with fine cuisine, top-shelf cocktails, live entertainment, and high-powered networking.

YJP will be launching many new initiatives throughout 2023 and 2024 as it continues to grow its community of 10,000+ professionals and 1,500+ leading CEOs. More information on the 40 Under 40 gala can be seen here.
