

Avra Banerjee Is Back With More Classical Extravaganza, Infused With Some Exceptional Lyricism

The Eminent musician Avra Banerjee is back with more exceptionally arranged musical treats. His Indian classical works are truly fascinating and highly engaging.

Perth, Jul 12, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Exceptional music composer Avra Banerjee is making the world a more melodiously charming place with his recent releases. From highly opulent Indian classical works infused with high-end orchestral burlesque. His 'Sheher e Dil', which translates to 'City of Hearts', is a treat that shows how creative one can get with seamless classical music and interestingly benevolent lyricism. And the singer of the song Tamal Kanti Halder and Sanchari Bhattacharya has done justice to this brilliant track. This song is one of the most exploding musical treats that one can witness.

Avra has been quite exploring with his formations and tonal qualities of the song. Another of his brilliant classical infusion is 'Roshni Kho Gayi', which is another brilliant piece of work with a firm musical atmosphere and generous classical turns and details. Riddhi Mitra and Tamal Kanti Halder have brightly performed the track with excellent musical resilience. And with the experience and insights of Avra Banerjee, these releases have become more interesting. With over 15 years of experience and a developing skill set, Avra has become one of the most brilliant Indian classical composers of this age.

He by far has done 7 albums and has done several successful collaborations with musicians across the subcontinent. He has been the founder of two World music bands called 'Ragamorphism' and 'SwaraSynthesis', one in India and another in Australia. He also received a nomination for the biggest Indian music award GIMA for best fusion music album and Independent Music Award, USA, in 2013.
