

JENNIFER GUCCI Launches World's First Gabagool Frozen Pizza

San Francisco, California Jul 12, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - JENNIFER GUCCI INTERNATIONAL, INC., a leading producer of innovative frozen pizzas, is proud to announce the launch of the world's first Gabagool Frozen Pizza. This exciting new addition to the JENNIFER GUCCI product lineup combines the flavors of traditional Italian cuisine with a touch of San Francisco's sourdough bread heritage.

Gabagool, known as Capicola in Italy, has gained popularity through its portrayal in the iconic TV show, The Sopranos. In one memorable episode, Meadow Soprano hilariously warns her grandmother about the supposed unhealthiness of Gabagool. Inspired by this cultural phenomenon, JENNIFER GUCCI has crafted a pizza that captures the essence of Jersey Italian Mafia culture.

The Gabagool Pizza features a sourdough base, paying homage to San Francisco's rich history of sourdough bread dating back to the California Gold Rush era. This unique crust provides a tangy taste and chewy texture that sets it apart. Each pizza is carefully crafted using premium ingredients, including Tillamook Cheese, Capicola dried ham, and imported Opera Pizza sauce from Italy. These high-quality components ensure that every bite is packed with authentic Italian flavor.

"We are absolutely thrilled to introduce GABAGOOL PIZZA to the world," said Richard H. Davis, President and CEO of JENNIFER GUCCI INTERNATIONAL, INC. "This groundbreaking creation embodies the perfect blend of taste and Mafia culture. Now, customers can proudly say 'Gabagool' when ordering our pizza and indulge in a culinary experience unlike any other."
